• ABET:
  Note the ABET accreditation review committee will be our accreditation review (every 6 years) next Sunday through Wednesday. During this time, there will be some required meetings with faculty and undergraduate students, possible visits to laboratories, and classrooms that will require priority efforts of some of the staff, faculty, and students. The Department asks for your patience and participation if requested. Note, this would be a good time to ensure that your laboratories are in proper order and that safe and best practices are followed, as always. Thank you for your help in insuring a successful outcome!

• Advisory Council:
  The annual Chemical Engineering Advisory Council will be on campus Oct. 6th and 7th. Again, some faculty, staff, and students will be involved throughout the course of this visit. We again ask for your patience and participation as we conduct this important facet of Department operations. Thank you!
